TOUR BAND NIGHT: THOMAS DIETAL OF SUTHERLIN

Sutherlin, out of Portland, OR, is touring the lower 48 for 8 months in celebration of their debut LP of the same name. On this evening, join us at the Winery to listen to a live performance of Sutherlin, Thomas performing alone with only his guitar and remarkable voice. Thomas has performed with numerous bands including Kindergarten (CMJ 1995), Shed Incorporated (NxNW 2000), Last Prick Standing (Nofest 2011), Six Legged Horse, Good News Combo Pack, and Redneck Baby. He has also collaborated with Matt Sheehy of Portland's Lost Lander (SxSW 2007). To date, he has released over a dozen albums, including the new solo rock EP, Quadrants. On the self-titled debut Sutherlin, featuring ten original modern country anthems, Thomas collaborated with pedal steel player Paul Brainard (of The Sadies, Richmond Fontaine, Alejandro Escovedo) in addition to the same quartet he had used on Quadrants. This time, guitarist Chet Lyster took over production duties as well, and he's the one largely responsible for the album's radio-ready pop sheen. A lot of these songs, Thomas claims, are playing with the lyrical conceits of "bro-country music" specifically and country music generally, both as homage and parody. "I guess they're kind of like little Quentin Tarantino films, or Don Quixote. Visit his website, sutherlinband.com.
