New Year's Eve at Spring Gate was fun in the past; we'll see if we can make it even more memorable this year! Our party is open to the general public, with the option of buying a special package in advance - like last year - the five drink "wristband", for a price to be announced, one band per person. A penny toast with some of our best sparkling will be happening along with our barrel drop at midnight. Wristbands will be sold in advance online; the date these go on sale will be announced in the coming weeks via Facebook. You'll be able to pick them up when you check in. Again, this event is open to the general public; if you don't purchase a wristband prior to this event online, you will still be able to attend and make purchases a la carte.
